Florence, November 21. N. S.

THE Great Duke, as ſoon as he receiv'd Advice of the Arrival of the German Troops at Pontro Moleze, diſpatch'd Major-General Ubaldi to Piſa, and the Baron Delnero to Sienna, to furniſh them with all things neceſſary in their March. They are now advanc'd as far as Pietra Santa, where, 'tis thought, they deſign to take up their Winter-Quarters. We have an Account from Leghorn, That on the Seventeenth Her Majeſty's Ships Superbe and Tartar came in there from Cruiſing, and brought with them two French Prizes laden with Oil. On the Twentieth Her Majeſty's Ship Reſtauration, of Seventy Guns and four Hundred Men, coming into that Road, was, by a violent Storm, forc'd on the Mallora Sands, and unfortunately caſt away; but all the Men were ſav'd in Tartans, and they are in hopes of recovering the Guns, if the Weather prove fair. Prince John Gaſton return'd hither on Sunday from Milan. Letters from Naples of the Fifteenth Inſtant ſay, they had prepar'd a great Train of Artillery there, but it was not yet known upon what Deſign.

Hamburgh, Decemb. 4. N. S. Our Advices from Dantzick of the Twenty-eighth paſt adviſe, That they were under a great Uneaſineſs at the Muſcovites having taken up their Quarters in the Neighbourhood of that City; and, the Magiſtrates had thereupon made a Repreſentation of this Matter to the Muſcovite General, but had as yet receiv'd no ſatisfactory Anſwer. The King of Denmark has caus'd to be bought up at Lubeck two hundred Laſts of Oats for the Uſe of his Army in Pomerania, which are to be brought thither by Sea under a Convoy of two Frigats; the neceſſary Forage for the Body of Troops employ'd in the Blockade of Stralſund having been furniſh'd by the Dutchy of Mecklenbourg. The Daniſh Artillery is arriv'd at Greiffswald; notwithſtanding which, the intended Attempt upon the Iſle of Rugen will be put off for ſome time, on account of the Badneſs of the Weather. His Daniſh Majeſty has declar'd King Auguſtus Hereditary Prince of the Crown of Denmark, in caſe of the Failure of his own Line Male; and that Prince has accordingly taken upon him the Title purſuant to the ſaid Declaration, and Quarter'd the Arms of Denmark and Holſtein. His Poliſh Majeſty has given out Commiſſions for raiſing four new Regiments of Foot. The Czar is at preſent at Riga, in expectation of the Arrival of the Prince his Son; after which, he will go to Petersbourg, where he deſigns to paſs the Winter. It is not yet known whether he will be attended by any foreign Miniſter excepting the Baron Schack, Envoy from the King of Denmark.

Francfort, Decemb. 6. N. S. The Emperor arrived at Inſpruck on the Twentieth paſt, where he gave Audience to Signior Albani, the Pope's Nephew; and his Majeſty having ſignify'd his Intentions of being here the Eighteenth, the Elector of Mentz will go very ſpeedily to Aſchaffembourg, in order to receive him there, and attend him to this Place. Prince Shwartenbourg came hither ſome Days ſince, to give Order for his Reception here, and the neceſſary Preparations for the Ceremony of his Coronation, which 'tis believ'd, will be the Twenty-third Inſtant. Prince Eugene is appointed Viceroy of Spain, but before he goes to his Government, it is thought he will take a Journey to Holland, in order to confer with the States, and ſeveral Miniſters reſiding there, about ſome Matters relating to the Affairs of Spain.

Hague, Decemb. 8. N. S. All the Miniſters of the High Allies have been this Day extraordinarily aſſembled with the Deputies of their High Mightineſſes. His Excellency the Earl of Strafford acquainted them, that the Queen had made choice of the City of Utrecht, for the Place of Treaty of a general Peace, and delivered to ſeveral of the Foreign Miniſters, the Circular Letters of Invitation to the Congreſs, which they diſpatch'd to their reſpective Courts. 'Tis ſaid, that Mr, Buys, now reſiding at the Court of Great Britain, will be appointed Plenipotentiary for the Province of Holland, and that the two others for the other Provinces will alſo be very ſuddenly nam'd. All the Foreign Miniſters here are preparing to be preſent at the opening of the Congreſs; and ſeveral magnificent Liveries and Equipages are getting ready with all poſſible Expedition. The States of Holland have preſented Monſieur de Priſe, Secretary of the Count de Goes, who brought the firſt News of the Promotion of King Charles to the Imperial Dignity, with a Gold Medal, valued at five hundred Florins. Letters from the Frontiers ſay, the French are very diligent in filling their Magazines, and recruiting their Forces, and have already bought up a great Number of Horſes for remounting their Cavalry, that they may be in a Condition to take the Field early in the Spring. The Party that was ſent from Mons to intercept the great Convoy of the Enemy in its way to Maubeuge, is return'd, without having been able to put the Deſign in execution, the Body of Forces that guarded it having been augmented to twenty thouſand Men. There was a Project form'd of deſtroying the Magazines of Hay at Charleroy; but that has likewiſe miſcarried. The Garriſon of Binche is reinforced, for fear of its being ſurpriz'd by the French in their Return from Maubeuge.

Plymouth, Nov. 30. The Twenty-eighth came in Her Majeſty's Ship the Seaford from Newfoundland, but laſt from Falmouth; and this Day ſhe ſailed again to the Eaſtward.
